

SUNY Sullivan Business Faculty

Prof. Mary Sudol, Chair of the Business and Culinary Arts Division. In 1987 Mary became a full-time faculty member in the Business Division and has served as the Chair of Business, Business and Culinary Arts, Business and IT, and Business and Social Sciences. Mary received the Chancellor's Award for Excellence in Teaching in 1996, the ACBSP Regional Excellence in Teaching Award in 1996, the ACBSP National Teaching Excellence Award in 1997, and she was recognized as one of Sullivan County's Outstanding Business and Professional Women in 2001. In March of 2007 Mary was inducted into the ACBSP Northeast Region Hall of Fame for her ten years of service to the organization. MA Business Policy SUNY Empire, BS Business Administration from Northeastern University.

Prof. Diane Riegal, Associate Professor. Served as an adjunct instructor at Sullivan from 1998 until 2005 when she was hired as a full time faculty. She currently serves as Associate Professor teaching a variety of business courses as well as culinary management. In addition to her experience as an educator, Prof. Riegal served as business manager for a private school for 12 years and is able to bring real world experience to the business courses she teaches. Prof. Riegal was awarded the SUNY Chancellor's Award for Excellence in Teaching in 2009. In addition, she was honored in the Business & Professional Women special supplement of the Sullivan County Democrat in 2013 and will also be receiving the Distinguished Service Award by the Professional Women of Sullivan County for 2015. MBA University of Phoenix, BS New York University, AAS SUNY Sullivan.

Prof. Arthur Riegal, Professor. Has worked for 30 years in Academia: SUNY Learning Network online instructor (13 years - Developed 9 Business courses for online delivery.), Facilities Coordinator of Culinary Arts Department, Bursar, Director of Culinary Arts Dept. (Developed Pastry Arts Program), Interim Dean of Students, Division Chair of Health, Social and Behavioral Sciences (Psychology and Social Work Programs added), Professor – Division of Business and Culinary Arts, Professor – Division of Social Sciences and Sustainability Studies, Chancellor's award for Faculty Service. MBA School of Management at SUNY Binghamton; BS New York University; AAS SUNY Sullivan.

Prof. Ron Bernthal, Professor, Prior to joining the faculty of SUNY Sullivan in 1984, Prof. Bernthal was an executive in the Hospitality & Tourism industry, working for several large firms including Argentine Airlines, Ciga Hotels of Italy, Nyman & Schultz Tours and Inside America. He was the first instructor in the College's Hospitality & Tourism Department, and presently teaches Principles of Advertising, Salesmanship, Business Communications, International Business, Survey of World Cultures and Meetings & Event Planning. Prof. Bernthal was awarded the Chancellor's Award for Excellence in Teaching in 1991, and is a member of several College committees. He is also a Contributing Writer for Global Traveler magazine, and his printed articles on China and other important global business destinations are widely read in the U.S., Europe and Asia. MFA Graduate Center of the City University of New York, BA City College of New York.

Prof. Erroyl Rolle, Associate Prof. Has 20 years of experience as a full-time and adjunct faculty for several higher education institutions, 13 years of experience managing academic programs at remote locations for higher education institutions, and 10 years of experience as an online educator/course developer via the State University of NY Learning Network.

MBA/Management American Intercontinental University; Graphic & Design & Digital Studies Pratt Institute of Technology, Graduate Arts Administration Studies SUNY Binghamton, Certificate in Orchestra Management, League of American Orchestras; Arranging & Composition Studies Berkley College of Music; BA Music Education Wagner College.