COPYRIGHT POLICY

Copyright cases will be designated as falling within one of three categories:

- a) Individual Efforts - This category covers copyrightable materials produced through individual initiative and effort, not through a specific College grant or contract, and for which only incidental use of College facilities and resources is involved. The copyrights to such material shall belong wholly to the individuals(s) and not to the college. The author receives 90% of net royalties, the College receives 10%.
- b) College-Assisted Individual Effort - This category covers copyrightable material produced when the College has assisted an individual effort by contributing significant staff, time, facilities, or resources. The College owns the copyrights to such material, but the author(s) shall receive 50% of the net royalties.
- c) College-Supported Effort - The category covers copyrightable material produced under terms of a College grant or contract. The College owns the copyright to such material, but the author(s) receive 25% of the net royalties.
