Please be aware that the Lazarus Levine Residence Hall is a separate entity from Sullivan County Community College and they will be negotiating in their own behalf. Sullivan County Community College is not responsible for any deliveries of propane or service work performed at the Residence Hall.

Each delivery must be metered individually to determine the amount to each location.

Provider must supply us with a telephone number that is in use 24 hours per day, 7 days per week, for emergency service calls.

Provider must certify that the propane they supply is clean and free of moisture, contaminants, and is suitable for "trouble-free" use in the propane system currently in use at the College. Separate quotations will be acquired from approved providers on an as needed basis for service work of this nature and dollar value.
