

CAP COM Digital Workshops

TAKING CONTROL OF YOUR FINANCES

Would you like to know how to take advantage of a low interest rate environment and secure your finances during this uncertain time. Capital Communications Federal Credit Union will be sharing the financial workshop: Taking Control of Your Finances.

Michelle Kollmer, the Relations Manager at Capital Communications Federal Credit Union will be presenting the financial workshop – Taking Control of Your Finances during the college's Open Enrollment Benefits Fair.

Join us for a webinar on 11/06/2020 at 11am to understand what proactive steps to take now to prepare yourself to stay on top of your finances in these stressful times.

This free workshop outlines

- Ways to reduce/consolidate debt
- Review your spending habits – create an emergency fund/rethink your financial situation

Financial education is important now more than ever so you can feel good about where you are with your money, regardless of any additional challenges ahead.

If you are interested in attending, please register by clicking on this link
<https://www.capcomfcu.org/events/digital-workshops>

1 day prior to the event, you will receive a link.

