Basic Meeting Room Options and Setups

Most meeting rooms on campus can be configured into one of the following setup types below:

Classroom Style	Tables arranged in rows facing the front of the room, with 2-3 chairs behind each table
Conference Room Style	Tables arranged in an open/closed rectangular block to create the sense of a Boardroom or Conference Room table.
Lecture Style	Chairs placed in rows facing the front of the room, with a center aisle.
Workshop Style	Tables are arranged in such a way that you can fit groups of 4-6 around, for small discussion.
Empty Room	All tables and chairs removed from the room.
Custom Room Setup	Event requesters may ask for specialized setup, this should be communicated in detail in a facilities request form and discussed with the Office of Special Events & Campus Activities. The special setup should also be communicated in a work order that will be distributed to Buildings and Grounds.
